- b) After receiving the quotations, the Facilitator chooses the vendor and procures the relief goods.
- c) The Facilitator will ensure that the relief goods are made in China.
- d) IOM shall be responsible for the overall supervision of the distribution of the hand tractors.

- e) The Facilitator will receive the report of the Implementer and forward it to the Donor.

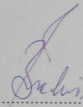

Article 3: Obligations of AMURT:

- a) The Implementer will identify the beneficiaries and submit a proposal to the Facilitator.
b) AMURT will source suppliers of Chinese made hand tractors and arrange for quotations to be sent to IOM.
c) The Implementer will conduct the distribution in Neuheun village in coordination with the village head and the brick factory committee.
d) AMURT will furnish IOM with the beneficiaries' list on completion of the distribution with an accompanying report.
e) The Implementer will follow up to ensure proper utilization and maintenance of the hand tractors.

Article 4: Spirit of Mutual Cooperation:

Both parties commit to collaborate to fulfill the objectives of this MoU and agree to resolve any differences in a harmonious way.
